

Chicago students attack cyber-bullying

Group releases video to promote discussion, solutions to social media problems.

(Click image to play video)

Bill Kissinger, WGN-TV News WGN News

1:21 p.m. CDT, September 23, 2011

CHICAGO—

School kids in Chicago are taking on the issues of online bullying and other social media problems. Students who are members of the Mikva Challenge City-wide Youth Council are urging other students to talk about about cyber-bullying, sexting and other concerns involving social media.

The group worked with Chicago Public Schools to create Your Social Life, a video about social media problems.

Students will watch the video and then talk about ways to prevent cyber-bullying.