The First Weeks of Class: Establishing the Action Civics Classroom
   Establishing the Action Civics Classroom: Recommendations
   Community-Building Activities
   Guidelines and Procedures
   Getting to Know Your Students
   Overview of the Course and Defining Terms

Unit 1: Why Should I Care About My Community?
   Section 1: What Do I Know About My Community?
       Defining Community
       Asset Mapping Our Communities
       Identifying Elected Officials

   Section 2: Why Should I Care About My Community?
       Why Should I Care?
       Even If I Care, What Can I Do?
       Working as a Group
       My Values/Our Values

Unit 2: What Are the Important Issues in My Community?
   Section 1: What Issue Is Most Important to Me?
       Introduction to Project Soapbox
       Structuring a Speech
       Spicing Up a Speech
       Delivering a Great Speech
       The Speech Competition

   Section 2: What Issue is Most Important to My Community?
       Top Issues in the Community
       Writing a Petition
       Internet Research
       Issue Debate Preparation
       Community Issues Debate

   Section 3: How Do We Find Out More About the Issues We Care About?
       Introduction to Primary Research
       Survey Your Community
       Research Through Interviews
       Root Causes
       The Ecological Model
       Setting Goals

Unit 3: Who Has Power and How Do We Access It?
   Section 1: How Does Our Government Work?
       The Purpose of Government
       From Philosophy to Forms
       U.S. Government
       It’s a Post-Zombie World

   Section 2: How Can We Lobby for What We Want?
       What is Lobbying?
       Lobbying: Follow the Money
       Who’s the Target?
       Analyzing Self-Interest
       Preparing to Meet with a Decision Maker
Democracy in Action Table of Contents

Unit 4: What Role Does the Media Play in Power and Change?
Section 1: What Power Does the Media Have in a Democracy?
- The Importance of an Informed Public
- Introduction to Media Bias
- Extreme Media Bias
- Identifying Perspective in News Stories
- Evaluating Perspective in Political Commentary
- New Media
- Civic Journalism

Section 2: How Can We Leverage the Media for Our Issue?
- Framing Our Message
- PSAs and Target Audience
- Getting Your Message Out

Unit 5: How Can We Effect Change Through Elected Office?
Section 1: Does Voting Matter?
- Why Vote?
- The Historical Fight for Suffrage
- Who Votes?
- Community Voting Analysis

Section 2: How Do Elections Work?
- Elections 101
- Getting to Know the Political Parties
- Third Parties
- All Politics Are Local
- Electoral College

Section 3: Which Candidate Best Represents My Views and Supports My Issues?
- Understanding Voter Choice
- Deconstructing Campaign Messages and Perceptions
- Candidate Blind Match
- Candidate Profiles
- Viewing Candidate Debates
- Campaigning for Your Candidate

Unit 6: How Do We Make a Change on Something We Care About?
Section 1: From Issue to Action
- Know Your Options
- Develop a Plan
- Utilizing the Media
- In It for the Long Haul
- Evaluate and Reflect on the Results of the Action
- Keep It Going

Section 2: Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee Case Study
- Hungry for Change: The Background to SNCC
- Greensboro Sit-ins: The Action that Started a Movement
- Actions Taken by SNCC
- Evaluating the Effectiveness and Impact of SNCC
- RAFT: Historical Point of View